

DIXON WATER COMPANY SUES CITY FOR $4000

Refuses To Accept Cut In Bill After Fire At Peoples Church

TO BE TRIED THIS TERM

Council Discussed Impending Court Action At Morning Session

Bills to the amount of $6,347.89 were allowed and over-paid by the city council in regular session this forenoon. Included in this amount is the sum of $3,280 hydrant rental, due the Water Company for six months rent for hydrants.

It developed at today's session of the council that the Water Company has brought suit against the City of Dixon for the sum of $4,000 and the case has been set for trial during the present term of court. Mayor Schmidt has been served with the proper summons. The suit grew out of the trouble over water pressure during the burning of the Peoples' church last April. At that time City Clerk Grover tendered the Water Company a check the sum of $1,640, just half of the six months rental. The city cut the rental in two because of a lack of sufficient pressure, which is provided in the ordinance. The Water Company refused to accept the check for that amount and has therefore brought suit against the city.

Another matter attended to this forenoon was the granting of a petition to erect an electrical sign over First street at 117, Stratton & Covert's cigar store. The proper bonds accompanied the petition.

During the session the prices and terms for lots in Oakwood cemetery were discussed. City Attorney Keller was present but the matter was put over until a future session when some action will be taken thereon and the proper ordinance passed and placed on file.

On motion of Commissioner Dana the council adjourned.

Lansing Tells Germany U. S. Will Adopt Reprisals Among Prisoners

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—In a note bristling with defiance, Secretary of State Lansing today rejected the German ultimatum demanding suspension of the use of shotguns by American troops, told Germany that this weapon will be retained, and gave solemn warning that if in a single instance the Germans carry out their threat to execute American prisoners, reprisals will be adopted in kind by the United States. Secretary Lansing practically brands Germany as an outlaw nation that cannot with clean hands protest against any weapon that may be turned against it. State department officials defended the shotgun and said it could not be compared with the "flammenwerfer," the poisoned gas shells, or the saw tooth bayonet used by the Germans. The German threat was presented to the state department by the Swiss charge d'affaires on Sept. 19. Lansing's defiance. Secretary Lansing's reply was a note of three paragraphs. He acknowledged receipt of the "protest" of the German government against the use of shotguns by the American army, and added: "In reply to the German protest

WILSON'S SPEECH FOR SUFFRAGE NOT STRONG ENOUGH TO BRING IT

Leaders of "Antis" in Senate Say Measure Cannot Be Passed

AS A WAR MEASURE

President Pleaded For Votes For Women As Necessary Law

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—As commander in chief of the army and navy President Wilson went before the senate today and called upon it to adopt nation-wide woman's suffrage as a necessary war measure.

Despite the earnestness of his appeal, amounting almost to a command, canvass by leaders on both sides tonight revealed no signs of any defection from the ranks of the thirty-four senators—twelve Republicans and twenty-two Democrats against the measure.

With the president's support behind them suffrage leaders declared their determination of risking a vote, probably tomorrow. They were hopeful that two or more "antis," influenced by the president's plea, might change their minds and cast their votes for the Susan B. Anthony amendment. Opposition leaders, however, are confident of victory.

Must Prove Democracy. America cannot expect to lead the liberal nations of the world in the struggle against Teutonic autocracy as long as she lags behind them in enfranchising the women—this was the gist of the president's argument for the prompt adoption of the amendment.

He made it plain that he regards woman suffrage as an essential of democracy and declared that the peoples allied against the central powers were looking to the United States to place women on an equal political footing with men.

IOWA WAS FIRST IN LOAN DRIVE

Iowa went over on the Fourth Liberty loan at 9:15 o'clock last night, when reports at headquarters showed subscriptions of $148,920,500. The quota of the state was $147,100,000. It is the first state in the union to raise its allotment.

MUST MAKE DIXON 100 PER CENT BY COMING FRIDAY EVE

Liberty Loan Headquarters Will Be Open During Next Three Days

2 PER CENT LACKING

98 Per Cent of People Of Community Have Done Their Part In Crisis

Again on last Saturday, September 28th, the full-fledged American spirit of the people of this community was demonstrated in the manner in which they so quickly, without any hesitation whatever, went to the polls voluntarily and subscribed their allotment of Liberty Bonds. Probably 98 per cent of the people did their share. Some of this 98 per cent did a great deal more than their share. This fact, however, does not obviate the necessity for every 100 per cent American citizen in this community doing his share, and by Friday of this week there is no doubt whatever but that Dixon township will be 100 per cent.

On Wednesday and Thursday of this week the Liberty Loan headquarters in the office of the Dixon Realty Co., will be open from 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.; on Friday of this week from 9:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.; and on Friday evening at nine o'clock the Liberty Loan headquarters will be closed. Before this time, all who have not subscribed should do so.

The men who represent us in the service are not given the option of voluntarily doing their duty, but are expected to respond to the call quickly, to obey orders promptly and to follow and protect the American flag even under death itself. Uncle Sam has not been so drastic with the civil population with respect to raising all the money for defraying the expenses of this great war, but leaves the matter to the choice of each individual. The vast majority of this community expects every person in the community to do his share. Make Dixon 100 per cent before Friday night at nine o'clock.

SOLDIER AT REST IN HIS ETERNAL BILLET

Pvt. Ralph O. Will Buried With Military Honors Monday P. M.

FIRST IN THIS VICINITY

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon over the remains of Private Ralph O. Will at the home of his father, Charles Will, in South Dixon township. Rev. P. L. Davis, his pastor, officiated and Miss Bessie Missman and Mrs. William Remmers sang several songs. The pallbearers were young men from Company F, Illinois Reserved Militia: Elwin Wadsworth, August Hasselman, George Adams, Curtis Gilbert, Daniel Shugart and Lester Rhodes.

The services at the grave were brief. Lieut. George Fruin was in charge of the firing squad. The services at the grave were largely military and were very impressive. Quite a few members of the G. A. R. of Dixon and a number of the members of the W. R. C. were present and assisted in the services at the house and the grave and the floral offerings were many and very beautiful.

Mayor Henry Schmidt and the members of the city council met the remains at the train, but did not accompany the funeral party to the home.

Ralph Will was the first Dixon soldier to die for his country whose remains were brought home for burial and was a splendid type of young man and had many friends.

The remains were accompanied from Camp Grant by Sergeant Persons, who left for the camp after the body had been taken to the home.

MASONS WILL GO TO BAXTER RITES

Dixon Masons have been asked to attend the funeral of former Senator Delos Baxter at Rochelle tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and it is probable many of the local Masonic orders will go. The funeral will be in charge of the Rochelle Masons with Knight Templar ceremonies at the grave. A number of Dixon attorneys will also attend the rites.

Startling Developments Favoring the Allies Are Expected

London, Oct. 1.—A great peace demonstration took place in Berlin on Saturday, according to news received here today.

The rioters got the upper hands of the authorities, according to the reports, and a number of statues in the Berlin squares were destroyed.

London, Monday, Sept. 30.—(Delayed)—With Bulgaria out of the war through the armistice signed Sunday, involving her complete military surrender, interest in the situation in the near-east today centered on developments in Turkey.

It is noted that Sir Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in his Guild Hall speech today, after speaking of the forces in Turkey at Gen. Allenby's command, added: "And there is something more to follow."

Later in the day, commenting on the advantages the control of Bulgaria's railroads will give the allies, he said: "In that there is a connection with the Turkish situation which I cannot tell, but of which we can all think."

Lee county has gone "over the top" in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive.

This was the word that was given out today by the men in charge of the drive. There are number of townships yet to be heard from, but the quota of the county has been raised thus indicating that the people of Lee county are in the list as patriotic citizens. The entire county has responded well and before Oct. 19th the entire sum of $6,000,000 will be in the hands of Uncle Sam and the money will be used to back the boys across the seas and assist materially in bringing the great war to a close.

DRAWING COMPLETED EARLY THIS MORNING

Work of Determining Order Numbers of the 13,000,000 Is Done

BEAT THE SCHEDULE

Washington, Oct. 1.—The drawing of order numbers for the 13,000,000 men who registered Sept. 12 was completed at 8 o'clock this morning, hours ahead of schedule. The last number drawn from the glass bowl was 12,734.

A competitive spirit which developed between the relays of officers and men handling the drawing accelerated the work in a most unexpected manner. Four relays, each working one hour and resting three, pushed the rate of drawing from 300 numbers per hour to an average of more than 800 an hour and even to 1100 in one hour. At the first drawing last year it required 17 hours to handle 15,500 numbers.

PATRICK PAINTS SUPERB PICTURES

E. A. Patrick has completed and is receiving congratulations on an excellent oil painting which is now on exhibition at the Stratton & Covert cigar store. The portrait shows a hunting dog standing at attention before his master who with gun in hand and garbed in the attire of Uncle Sam's fighting men, is leaving the old home to take his place in the ranks of the nation's defenders. The dog, seeing the gun, evidently expects a hunting trip, answered by the master's "Not this trip, old pal." Mr. Patrick has put a fine touch of realism in the picture, which is worthy a place in the finest surroundings.

Atty. and Mrs. E. H. Brewster and family, Mrs. Katherine Blem, Miss Gertrude Youngman and Edw. Sarwin were in Oregon Saturday.

TODAY'S WAR BULLETINS

Americans Made Another Advance

By Associated Press Leased Wire. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 1 (8:30 P. M.)—American troops made an advance on their extreme left along the edge of the Argonne Forest today. Strenuous fighting took place at Cierges, near the center of the line.

Huns Driven From West Bank

By Associated Press Leased Wire. With the British Army in France, Oct. 1.—Not one town held by Germans remains on the west side of the St. Quentin canal. The enemy was driven across the canal in heavy fighting last evening and last night. The Germans are holding the east bank of the canal in greater force.

Germans Plan To Retire Before Yanks

By Associated Press Leased Wire. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 1 (6:30 p. m.)—Although it is apparent that the Germans are trying to keep the Americans back as far as possible from the Kreimhilde line on the front from the Argonne to the Meuse, it is evident the enemy has been weakening notwithstanding the fury of their general resistance.

Fires behind the German lines are taken as an indication that the enemy is burning his supplies, while observers report the movement of transport vehicles, apparently well loaded, toward the north.

Engagement Was General. The engagement today was virtually general along the whole line. There were no separate engagements, the fighting taking place over nearly the entire front on which rain fell a greater part of the time.

The Germans have their heavy guns in action, while their lighter artillery was firing point blank in many places in their continued effort to drive a hole in the American lines.

To Desperate Means. The enemy is apparently resorting to desperate means to maintain his strength on his forward lines. He is even reinforcing the lines by detachments from units that are ordinarily kept intact. It has been learned that in many cases units as small as battalions have been ordered to the line to fill holes in the line not even in the same division.

Against the theory that the Germans are preparing to fall back, the movement southward of a small detachment of tanks from Romagne is reported. If they are brought into action it will be the first time the enemy has used them in this operation.

FINAL LECTURE BY DR. ALDEN TOMORROW EVE

AURORA DEVINE WILL CONCLUDE SERIES WITH ADDRESS, "MADE IN AMERICA."

"Made in America" will be the subject of a lecture by Charles A. Alden, at The Peoples church tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. It will conclude the present series of lectures. Announcements will be made at that meeting of future plans.

The Peoples church has been trying to arrange with Mr. Alden for a series of lectures through the winter, but in addition to his other duties he has just been appointed as chairman of the Aurora Board of Instruction for Drafted Men, which is established through the Local Board by direct order of Provost Marshall General Crowder. The work of that board is to give preliminary training to men before they go to camp. Aurora anticipates about a thousand men in class one of the last draft. These must be met in groups of about fifty for the instruction as outlined. Mr. Alden says this will take two or three evenings a week from now on and that it is doubtful if he can make any engagements for outside speaking.

The series of September lectures has been much enjoyed by those attending and Mr. Alden has proven himself able to give a logical and inspiring analysis of patriotism that is one hundred percent loyal. The public is invited to the lecture Wednesday on "Made in America." There is no admission charged, but a collection is taken.

HAIG'S FORCES ARE ENCIRCLING BURNING BASTION

Lille, St. Quentin, and Laon Also Threatened By the Allies

SUB BASES MENACED

Evacuation of German Strongholds In Belgium Imminent

By Associated Press Leased Wire. French, British and Belgian forces continue to advance against the Germans and are further imperiling the enemy positions from Verdun to the North Sea.

The bastions of Lille, Cambrai, St. Quentin and Laon have been rendered more or less useless to the Germans.

Cambrai has been set on fire by the Germans, while Field Marshal Haig's forces are pushing in on the city from the north, west and south.

Tightening the Rings.

Around St. Quentin the British are extending the iron ring about that important point. Between St. Quentin and Cambrai, Gen. Haig's men have fought their way across the Scheldt Canal at several points, having taken Venhuile on the canal west of Le Catelet and midway between St. Quentin and Cambrai. Northwest of St. Quentin the British have taken Leveghies, which is east of a line running north and south through St. Quentin.

Driving In Wedge.

The wedge between Lille and the German submarine bases on the Belgian coast is being widened rapidly. The Belgians have driven the enemy from Roulers, on the railroad line running from Lille to the submarine bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge.

Menacing Menin.

Further south the British are menacing Menin, a junction on the same railway along the Lys river, and have progressed for a distance of five miles.

The Belgians are now on open ground, having overcome heavy enemy counter attacks, and it would seem that the railroad forming the triangle which encloses Lille, Ghent and Bruges, would soon be lost to the Germans, bringing about the evacuation of Ostend and Zeebrugge.

The County Aid Bridge Committee duly appointed in the construction of a Bridge in Harmon Township present the following report: of the County Aid Bridge Committee for the erection of the Peter Hermes Bridge, in the Town of Harmon. To the Lee County Board of Supervisors:—

Dixon, Ill., Sept. 17, 1918.

Gentlemen:—Your County Aid Bridge Committee for the erection of the Peter Hermes Bridge, on the west boundary of Section No. 18, Town of Harmon, crossing Drainage Ditch No. One, would report that the said Bridge is now completed, and that we recommend it for your acceptance.

The Peter Hermes Bridge is a steel structure, of I-beam type, 32 feet over all, built on concrete walls, with steel piling, and according to plans by the State Highway Department.

The work was duly advertised, and the letting held at the office of the Co. Supt. of Highways, March 25, 1918.

Bids for the work, above the piling, were submitted as follows: Frank Hughes, Dixon, $2163.00; J. S. Warner, Grand Detour 2005.00; Joliet Bridge Co., Joliet, 1949.00; Northern Steel & Construction Co., Freeport 1899.99; John P. Harvey, Amboy, 1890.00.

The work was awarded Mr. Harvey, as being lowest responsible bidder. His bid on steel piling, which was accepted was 75 cents per lineal foot.

Frank E. Smallwood, Highway Commissioner of Harmon, was appointed Inspector, at a wage of $4.00 per day. After the erection of the bridge Mr. Smallwood, as Commissioner, employed men to fill in the approaches.

We find the cost of the completed work to be as follows: John P. Harvey, Structure above piling, $1890.00; John P. Harvey, 30 piles (360 ft.) @ 75c, 270.00; Town of Harmon, filling in approaches, 54.45; F. E. Smallwood, inspecting 7 days @ $4.00, 28.00; The Dixon Leader, advertising, 13.80.

Total cost of completed work, $2256.25.

The said work having been done by County Aid, the County of Lee and the Town of Harmon should each meet one-half of the said several obligations, amounting, in this case, to $1128.12.

We therefore recommend that Lee County and the Town of Harmon each pay as follows: John P. Harvey, 1/2 his entire bill, $1080.00; Town of Harmon, 1/2 the cost of filling approaches, 27.22; F. E. Smallwood, 1/2 his bill as Inspector, 14.00; The Dixon Leader 1/2 its bill for advertising, 6.90.

Checking with the 1/2 cost as above, $1128.12.

It appears that the bill of the "Leader" was rendered and paid in full by the County, at the June meeting of the Board. For this reason in the matter of said bill, the sum of $6.90 is due the County from the Town of Harmon.

Respectfully submitted this 11th day of September, 1918.

THE WIFE

By JANE PHELPS

BRIAN BECOMES ANGRY AND IS ANXIOUS TO GO HOME.

CHAPTER LXVI.

When Brian left his sentence unfinished, because just at that moment Claude Beckley joined them; he escaped a scathing rebuke that trembled on Ruth's lips.

"Well, here I am. Yes, I'll take a smoke, thank you," Beckley said as Brian pushed the box lying on the table toward him. Then, facetiously: "Did you give him a good talking to, Mrs. Hackett? He deserved it."

"No indeed!" Ruth braced herself for the ordeal. "Brian and I never give each other what you call a talking to, do we Brian?"

"He always was a lucky dog. Before he married he always carried off all the pretty girls and left the rest of us mooping. Now he's got a wife who lets him go right on having a good time and doesn't nag him. For goodness sake tell me: 'Are there any more at home like you?'"

Ruth laughed, she couldn't help it. Claude Beckley was the most ridiculous creature she ever had met.

"I am the one and only," she returned.

"Then what am I to do?" his mock serious tone made her laugh again. That she was a bit hysterical, did not escape Brian. He was sulking now.

"Come, Ruth, let's go home!" he said after a moment. "We've spent all our money, there's no use staying here."

"Oh, don't be a grinch! Sit and smoke a while," Beckley said, helping himself to another cigarette.

"Yes, do!" Ruth added. "The music is delightful," she really dreaded being alone with Brian; then, too, down deep in her heart she thought perhaps she might learn more of Brian and Mollie King from Beckley—although she would have hesitated to acknowledge it.

"Oh, very well," Brian sank back in his chair.

"Can't you keep him away?" Beckley asked Ruth.

"From what?"

"From Mollie. She looked with favor on me a while back. Now she scorns me. A jug of red ink, and an Italian table de hote' and me no longer tempt her. Brian has spoiled her for the simple life. It is a shame that one man should have so much and the rest of us nothing. Don't you think so?"

"I think you are talking like an ass!" Brian interrupted. "Ruth isn't used to your nonsense, Beckley. Cut it out!"

"You don't think me silly, do you, and Mrs. Noble helped at the registration table, and Misses Morrison and Dement filled in the cards. The mothers of Dixon are showing that they are 100% patriotic by responding in this splendid manner to the request of the government that every child under six be weighed and measured."

Dispensaries Crowded:—The president of the American Fund for French wounded has returned from a visit of inspection to our dispensaries at the front. The tour included more than twenty villages and towns and everywhere she found the dispensaries crowded with women and children, and the strength of the workers taxed to the utmost. The work of this committee cannot be underrated.

New Opportunity for Women:—The Illinois Training Farm for Women at Libertyville, Ill., offers to women an opportunity for patriotic service which is both timely and useful. Women enlisting in this service will be trained to adequately officer the Women's Land Army of the future. The Training Farm will be open during the fall and winter, and women taking the course will be equipped practically and theoretically to organize and supervise women farm units another year. This offer is made with no charge for tuition, board, or lodging. Women must enroll with a thorough understanding that the work is not merely temporary but a conscientious effort to meet practically an increased demand for farm labor, owing to the depletion caused by the draft of men into the service. Training is being given in dairy farming, poultry raising, animal husbandry, soils, general crops, vegetable gardening and home economics. The dairy department will make high-grade butter and cheese. Miss Ransford, in charge of this department, worked under Professor Anderson for four years at the Michigan Agricultural College.

This new course at the Training Farm is open now, and they are anxious to get in touch with this sort of work. Miss Merriam, who is in charge of the farm activities is a practical housewife and has had a great deal of experience. Mrs. Morse of the University of Chicago, who has given many demonstrations, is in charge of Home Economics. Girls wishing to take up dairying seriously, may register at Room 614, 112 West Adams street, Chicago.

Once a Day Deliveries Asked of Retailers:—Acting under instructions from Washington, the Commercial Economy Administration of the State Council of Defense calls upon every retailer in Illinois to cut delivery service to one trip a day on each route. Within a week or ten days every retailer will have the proposition put up to him squarely as a government request.

The people at large are also called upon to do their share in establishing the system. Women in particular can help greatly (1) by carrying with them themselves small packages; the homes of Miss Linnie Willis. The (2) by contenting themselves with seeing with open at 3 o'clock and a once-a-day deliveries, learning the good attendance is desired.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. McWilliams, 309 Grant avenue.

Following the dinner the evening was spent socially, a feature being Victrola music. Snap shot pictures were taken which will have pleasant memories in years to come. Mr. Langford will leave to enter a polytechnic school at Billings, Mont., as soon as he receives his call from the government.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Crasper, Mrs. Paul Harris and daughter, Miss Harriet, of Gap Grove, Miss Courty of Dixon, Charles Burr of Morrison, Miss Elizabeth Ripley of Rock Falls, Mrs. Rea and Miss Geraldine Langford of Sterling.

AMERICA'S CHILDREN.

George Bernard Shaw has some cutting things to say about America's donations to children in far countries. They were called forth by an appeal to Americans for shoes and stockings for Dublin children. As a native of Dublin, Mr. Shaw feels justified in jumping on that city first. He says Dublin is perfectly able to feed and clothe her own children, if she chooses. Whereupon he goes on to remind America of her sins to her own children:

"Baby-killing is an international crime. The English kill their babies fifteen times as fast as the war kills men. The Germans are worse. The Italians are worse again. The Russians perhaps worst of all. I don't know exactly where the Americans come in.

"I am not forgetting the poor little slaves in the cotton mills of Carolina on whose behalf I am prepared to solicit, not shoes and socks, but fire from heaven; but the moral is that if America wants to rescue children from poverty and slavery she had better look at home, and not supply another superfluous demonstration of the fact that the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth."

This is sharp speech. But is it not justified? Is it not rather hypocritical to give to children abroad with the right hand while with the left we drive our own children into that semi-starvation which is worse than death because it unfits for life without releasing from life's obligations?

Giving to children in the war-torn districts is not only right but it is a necessity at the present time. But it is no reason for neglecting our own. The injunction to "Let not the left hand know what the right hand doeth," was not meant to give one hand excuse for doing things of which either should be ashamed.

Attention of our southern statesmen, now wielding power at Washington, is directed to the drastic criticism by Mr. Shaw. We in the north have only begun to "save the babies." We have far to go. But in the south scarcely a beginning has been made.

Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY IN GERMAN PRISON CAMP WRITES OF AIDING AMERICAN SOLDIERS THERE

The following interesting extracts are from letters to Mrs. Hoffman, sister-in-law of Mrs. Harry Bischoff, nee Pauline Lord, from her husband, who is connected with the Y. M. C. A. and has been doing relief work in a prison camp in Germany. Mr. Hoffman has been in Germany since the beginning of the war and is still there. Through a special license of the war trade board is the only way Mrs. Hoffman is able to get her husband's letters. He is the only American Y. M. C. A. secretary now in Germany. He is a graduate of Wisconsin university and was afterwards instructor there. Mrs. Hoffman will be remembered as giving a very interesting lecture before the Phidian Art Club last November.

Questioned on how she could keep her talk so neutral she replied that she was warned when she left Germany, where she was until the United States entered the war, that if she told the real conditions, it would go hard with her and her husband. The excerpts are from letters of May 30th to June 30th, this year, and are as follows:

May 30th—Today is Decoration Day. Somehow this day will have a new significance in the homeland this year. This morning's mail brought me a letter from West Bend, Ind., from the parents of a boy here (American prisoner), which I have forwarded to him, but no letter from you.

You want to know, of course, when I am coming; and I am just as anxious to know when I am going to get away from here. The Ministry has already asked for my traveling permit, so there will be no trouble in that line. I will be able to leave whenever the re-organization of our work is completed, but there is the hitch; I fear the matter will drag along for two or three months before finally regulated; in fact, it looks now as though the whole stir was very much like the South Sea bubble, and I would not be surprised if all continued as in the past with the exception that I leave. I will be unusually happy if such a happy solution of the difficulty results. Next week I begin my visiting of our American prisoners of war; needless to say, I am looking forward to it with great pleasure and sincerely hope I may be of real help to them, bringing them help and encouragement.

Our office force numbers ten girls now, one office secretary, and myself, and we can hardly keep up with the work.

These days the papers are full of the offensive on the west; the loss of one could at least get things, now maximum prices have been set and everything, all fruit and vegetables, have disappeared off the market as if by magic. I managed to secure a cucumber the other day which served as vegetable for me for three days.

June 4.—I had hoped to be away by this time and have packed and shipped all my books, room decorations, etc., so my room looks very bare, but I thought I might have to leave in a hurry as you did, and wanted them taken care of. My letters from you are all daubed up with some chemical substance to see if there is any secret writing on them.

(Note:—Mine from him have been so badly daubed up that they were almost entirely illegible. Mrs. Hoffman.)
June 17.—Vegetables continue to be very scarce. I was in a store the other day and saw a lady buy some carrots and immediately asked for some. They were hidden behind the counter and the storekeeper was very loath to give me any. The greens are weighed with the carrots and constitute 3% of the weight, so I had only 2-3 of a pound. If you want a little parsley you must take a whole bunch at 15c, wild strawberries are on sale at $2.00 a pound (at the former value of a mark), old lettuce to use as spinach, 7c a pound, spring chicken at $2.50 a pound, goat and rabbit sausage at $2.00 a pound. The most ordinary and cheapest candy of other days costs $2.20 a pound, so the children are getting very few sweets these days.

Yesterday I had the unexpected pleasure of meeting an American who was captured as he was trying to reach Stockholm from Petrograd, via the Aland Isles. He was at first interned as a civilian prisoner, but was released through the efforts of influential friends, and is now under treatment in a sanatorium here. We had succeeded in getting him word from his wife while he was still interned; he wanted to see us to express his gratitude for all we had done for him. Perhaps you have heard of him, Prof. Crosby Emery? He was well satisfied with the treatment he had from the local authorities here.

Leather shoes are no longer on exhibition in the stores; only various more or less inferior substitutes, wooden soles, pieced leather or cloth uppers.

Theatres and movies are in full swing everywhere, but church services are very poorly attended, and one raises the question whether or not the local church has failed to measure up to the call made upon it by the war. To me the church is dead; the living waters are missing. There is no great religious activity; at best the church has become little more than an instrument of the military and that a very poor instrument. Courage, initiative, faith are missing, conversion an unheard-of phenomenon.

Two months ago I thought I would be home by now. And today I do not know when I will leave.

June 24.—Just finished my dinner, asparagus with a flour water sauce, and dry rye bread, and might thank I was for it. I had good luck, for I managed to get some asparagus on the way home. For some reason, I could get no potatoes last week, but I managed to get a cucumber after standing in line a long time and having a fearful scamper after I got to the counter. Saturday I also had the good luck to get a head of cauliflower, for which I paid 50c.

I am still in the dark about the re-organization of our work. I would like to have it turned over to the Scandinavian Y. M. C. A. Last week we had a record day—$12,500 received in one day mainly for food and parcels for prisoners, meaning a great deal of work but work which we do gladly.

June 30.—From what Schaeffli (his assistant, a Swiss, who was in Switzerland for a conference) says, I am virtually an outcast and feel as though I am ostracized, because I have remained here to render every possible service to our Allies' prisoners of war and ours. My chief concern is for your welfare, and I pray that the fact that I have remained here does in no way compromise you or make your position difficult. God knows I have been loyal and prompted by sincere motives of service for the welfare of our people. I shall continue going on, doing my best for the prisoners as I am permitted; the results of those efforts, past and present, will always be my best defense against any accusations.

Everything would be much easier if you and baby were here. But it is war, and we must keep stiff upper lips, be men and women worthy of our Christian and National calling, then when all is over we can look the world square in the face with clean consciences, knowing we did our best to do our duty, prepared to make any sacrifice in its fulfillment. And that is true patriotism!

LEE COUNTY IS OVER THE TOP IN FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Some Towns Behind.
The local committee is awaiting anxiously for the word from some of the townships that are behind, but they feel assured that when the word does come to headquarters at Dixon that it will carry the joyful news that each township in the county will have raised the full quota.

Lee county never does anything by halves when it starts out to accomplish anything. Her people are in the front rank of patriotism and they give their wealth willingly when it is used to support the great armies of France. They feel a deep interest in the welfare of their country. They feel that America has the greatest army of them all; they feel that America will and must win the war and if money will help and they know it will, they dig down deep into their pockets and bring the same out willingly to Uncle Sam with instruction to use to the best advantage to win the war and do so quickly as possible. Lee county wants her boys home. She wants them to come home with honors and with victory. They have the utmost faith in the valor and spirit of their boys and that is one of the reasons why the patriotic citizens of Lee county are responding so willingly to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

SAY NELSON IS BOOMING TOWN

Engineer Frank Murray and Switchman W. H. Johnson were here from Nelson this morning calling on friends. These two young men are Nelson's chief boosters. They say that Nelson is going to become a large city some day. Several new homes are going up there and soon there will be street cars connecting Nelson with Dixon. These young men have purchased Liberty bonds and in addition to that stand ready to shoulder a gun in defense of Uncle Sam if need be.

AMERICAN HOG HELPED YANKS

Chicago.—If an army really "travels on its stomach," the American hog has done its bit in wiping out the St. Mihiel salient, for statistics completed today show that the Yanks in France have broken the world's record as bacon eaters.

From President Edward Morris, Jr., of Morris & Company, packers, it was learned today that statisticians of the Company, after checking past neat records with late government figures, have discovered that the exports of bacon in the first seven months of this year are almost equal to the total bacon exports for five years preceding the war. The figures are 736,959,092 pounds as compared with 912,370,461 pounds.

Mrs. R. R. Hudson, formerly of Dixon, who is now employed at LaSalle, spent Monday with Dixon friends.

Forward!

With no thought of bursting shrapnel and poisonous gases into which they plunge—with every muscle tense with every faculty of mind alert, with one thought only--TO FIGHT AND WIN.

That is the way our men are going into battle. When the shrill whistle sounds the advance, out they go--their whole heart in the task before them. No power on earth can hold them back.

Forward!

The same sharp challenge to battle is sounding for us. We must answer in the same proud way--the way of our fighting men--the American way. We must lend the way they fight.

We must show the war maddened-Hun a united American people moving forward shoulder to shoulder, irresistibly, to Victory.

Our task is to supply the money, the ships, the guns, the shells that we must have to win. It is a tremendous task. We must do it as our fighting men do theirs--with the indomitable spirit of Victory.

We must work, and save, and lend with one thought only--TO FIGHT AND WIN.

CROWN PRINCE IN APPEAL TO KAISER

Somewhere in France, on Der Run All Der Time. Dear Fadder—I am writing on her run as der brave and glorious soldiers under my command haf not seen der Rhine for so long dot dey started back dot way, and of course I am going mit dem. Oh, papa, dere has been some offel dings happened here in France. First, I starded in my big offensive which was to crush der fool Americans, but they know so liddle about military tactics dot they vill not be crushed just like I vant them. I sent my men in the fight in big vaves und ven they got to der Americans they all said "Boo" just as loud as dey could holler.

Vell, according to vat you have always told me der Americans should ha turned und run like der blazes; but vat do you dink? Dem fool Americans don't know anything about war, und instead of running the odder vay dey came right at us. Some of dem was singing about "Ve wondt come back till it's offer oder here," or some odder follisher song, und some of dem was laffing chust like fols. They are so ignorant.

"But they are offel reckless mit their guns, und ven they came toward us it vas den dot my men took a notion dey wanted to back to der dear old Rhine. Ve don't like de liddle, dirty Marne river, anyhow. And, oh, papa, I dink the Amreicans use such offel langwich. Und they talk blasphemy, too. Vhat do you dink dey said right in front of my face? One big husky from a place dey call Iowa, he said, Oh papa, I can't help id, he said "To hell mit der Kaiser." I didn't dink anybody would say such a offel ding.

"Und furthermore, dem Americans can't be much of chentlemens. It made me so mad I wouldn't stand und hear such an offel ding, so I turned around und run mit der odder boys. Vas I right? Vat? Und, Oh, papa, you know dem breast plates wot you sent us. Can you send us some to put on our backs? You know ve are going de odder vay now und breast plates are no goot; de cowardly Americans are always shooting us right in der back. Some of der boys took off der breast plates and put dem on behind, but de fool Americans are playing "Der Star Spangled Banner" mit machine guns right on der plates. Can't you help us? You remember in your speech you said noddung could stand before der brave Chermans.

"Oh papa, I don't belief dem ignorant Americans ever read your speech, for dey run after us like ve as a lot of rabbits. Vot you dink of dot? Won't you send dem some of your speeches right away quick? Dey don't know how terrible ve are. And can't you move my army back to Belgium vere ve von all der time? My men vill whip all der vimen und childrens vot dem Belgians can bring us, but der Americans are so rough and ignorant.

"Ve can't make dem understand dot ve are de greatest soldiers in der world, und von ve sing "Deutschland uber Alles" dey laff like a lot of monkeys. But ve are getting der best of der Americans. Ve can outrun dem, papa. If ve are not der best fighters on earth ve sure are der best runners. Nobody can keep up mit us ven ve dink of der old Rhine, und my army neffer did dink so much of der dear old Rhine as aow, eider. Let me know vot to do right away by return post office. Your son, Crown Prince Villie."

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Drop Freezone on a touchy corn, then lift that corn off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No humbug!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Five Waists From One

"SUCH a lovely pattern! Yet I tired of this waist as I had of others. One day Margaret told me her secret. Each waist—each item of dainty apparel—lives three to six lives of refreshing newness! When, with a few weeks' wear, a garment becomes commonplace—the color lifeless and faded—she renews its first attractiveness with a magic soap that dyes as it cleans. This soap is Cinderella. It requires no boiling. It dyes fast color and won't wash out. I tried Cinderella. It quickly transformed my faded pink waist to a lovely flesh tint. Three times since, I have washed and dyed it with Cinderella, using a different color each time—and thus I have really had five new waists from one!"

Cinderella does not stain hands or utensils. It is harmless to skin and fabrics. A 10-cent cake cleans and colors five waists. Try it!

15 beautiful colors—to delicate shades

Complete Control Of Bulgaria Given To Allied Armies

The armistice concluded with Bulgaria by the entente allies is a purely military convention and contains no provisions of a political character. Bulgaria agrees to evacuate all the territory she now occupies in Greece and Serbia, to demobilize her army immediately, and surrender all means of transport to the allies.

Bulgaria also will surrender her boats and control of navigation on the Danube and concede to the allies free passage through Bulgaria for the development of military operations.

All Bulgarian arms and ammunition are to be stored under the control of the allies, to whom is conceded the right to occupy all important strategic points.

The Associated Press learns that the military occupation of Bulgaria will be entrusted to British, French and Italian forces and the evacuated portions of Greece and Serbia respectively to Greek and Serbian troops.

The armistice means a complete military surrender and Bulgaria ceases to be a belligerent.

All questions of territorial rearrangements in the Balkans were purposely omitted from the convention.

The allies made no stipulation concerning King Ferdinand, his position being considered an internal matter, one for the Bulgarians themselves to deal with.

The armistice will remain in operation until a final general peace is concluded.

French Resume Drive.

Gen. Berchot resumed his onslaught this (Tuesday) morning against the Germans between the Vesle and the Aisne northwest of Rheims. The French here are marching steadily toward the eastern end of the Chemin des Dames and the open country north of Rheims and between that city and Laon.

French and American forces are pressing against the German lines maintaining their steady and forward defending the important positions between Metz and Laon.

West of Argonne the French are zieries. Up to Sept. 26 the French pressing up the Aisne toward Vouin this sector had captured more than 13,000 prisoners and 300 guns. East of Argonne the Americans have improved their positions in the face of strong counter attacks.

New Allied Line.

In the past ten days the allies have made great changes in their battle front. From Nieuport the line today runs south to Dixmude and Roulers, thence south and west to a point near Armentieres, which is surrounded, an advance on to La Bassée, thence south and east to Belcourt, three miles north of Cambrai.

Near Center of City.

Around Cambrai the line is less than a mile from the center of the city. It runs south to Le Cateau, and between that point and St. Quentin a sharp salient has been driven into the German lines, with its apex at Le Vergis. St. Quentin is surrounded on the north, west and south, from which point the French hold an irregular line south, to Le Fere.

Southwest of LaFere, the line runs along the west edge of the St. Gobain forest, striking sharply to the left at Anizy and running southeast across the Chemin Des Dames and along the Oise-Aisne canal to the Vesle at Jonzechery, thence east to St. Marie-a-Py. At Rheims the line runs east and west a point north of Verdun. From the Meuse to the Swiss border there has been little change in the situation.

THREE YEARS WAR ENOUGH FOR BULGARIA

By Associated Press

Bulgarian representatives agreed to an armistice—probably the first step in Bulgaria's withdrawal from the alliance with the central powers—a few days less than three years after she entered the war on the side of Germany. It was on Oct. 8, 1915, that Bulgaria issued a manifesto announcing her decision to cast her lot against the entente alliance. She had been fifteen months in deciding her course.

In the manifesto issued at the time of her entrance into the ranks of the belligerents the Bulgarian government declared that her trade interests and economic rights "were inseparably bound up with Turkey, Germany and Austria."

It was added that Germany had offered Bulgaria in return for her neutrality the whole of Macedonia including Uskub, Monastir, and Ochrida. A still greater territorial expansion at the expense of Serbia was said to have been offered as a condition of active military assistance.

During the period of Bulgarian neutrality, both the entente alliance and the central powers had made offers to Bulgaria; and Russia, who for years had protected Bulgarian interests, sent an ultimatum to Bulgaria early in October, 1915. Bulgaria refused the Russian demands. It was reported at that time and never denied authoritatively that a secret treaty had been signed between Bulgaria and Germany concerning Bulgarian participation in the war on July 17, 1915.

Bulgarian troops invaded Serbia Oct. 13, 1915. Bulgaria's joining the central powers was one of the reasons that led Roumania to enter the war on the side of the entente late in August, 1916.

The population of Bulgaria was not unanimously in favor of Bulgaria's joining the "Teutonic alliance." The government took harsh measures against those opposed to the war and those who were friendly to the entente.

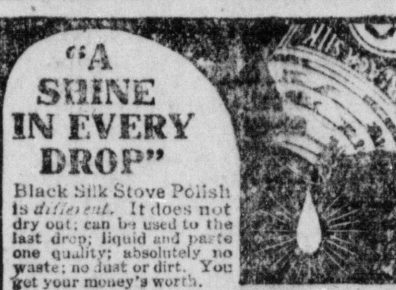

Premier Radoslavoff, who was reputed to be under the sway of Berlin, was compelled to retire last June and his place was taken by M. Malinoff, a Russophile, who had been friendly to the entente before Bulgaria entered the war.

King Ferdinand on the plea of ill health, spent the greater part of last summer in Germany. Soon after the king returned to Sofia there were reports of unrest there, but the military party maintained the upper hand.

On Sept. 11 Franco-Serbian forces attacked the German-Bulgarian line in Macedonia east of Monastir. Breaking through, the allied troops rapidly advanced northward, driving a wedge between the wings of the German-Bulgarian front.

Bulgaria was invaded by British troops at a point north of Saloniki, and on Sept. 27 Gen. Franchet d'Esperey, the allied generalissimo, announced that he had received from the Bulgarian government a proposal that military operations be suspended pending negotiations for an armistice. The Bulgarian representatives reached Saloniki Saturday and negotiations were opened Sunday.

The armistice has been arranged on terms laid down by the allies. It is probable that it calls for the occupation of Bulgaria by allied troops, with the assistance of the Bulgarian government. Bulgaria probably will be compelled to break off communication with the central powers and also to withdraw its armies from Serbia, Greece, Roumania, and other war theaters.
